CHANGES NOW AND TO COME

I decided to end my 16 year tenure as an Adjunct Professor of Art at St. Norbert College. This past semester was my last.

I will continue to conduct my private classes in Green Bay, but in an effort to avoid the long winter drives as best I can, I will be reducing them from four sets of eight classes to three -- starting in the fall. (Specific times and dates for the coming school year will appear in the next newsletter.

In the next phase of changes, I will offer home-study courses to local families similar to the correspondence courses I have been selling over the past 35 years -- during which time I taught over 3000 students in 20 countries. Online versions of my courses are in the works as well. More later.

Have a great Summer!
